I recieved a call on Shari's line while I was dealing with a guest.

He stated that he's been calling all over the office and no one is answering.

I asked him if he can hold on and I'll get back to him. He said he did not want to be put on hold, where's Shari.

I said she's not available right now once again can he hold on. He hung up.

While I continued tending to my guests he called back and asked me why would I put him on hold. I stated once again that I was dealing with a guest and I would get back to him shortly. He hung up again.

I recieved a call from a woman yelling about how Battery Park City is a bunch of fing aholes and crooks. I asked her is there anyone she would like to speak to. She then responded "I would like to speak to the fing executive because this is f---ing ridiculous!" I asked her if she can please let me know her name and the reason she's calling. She refused to state her name but told me that she's a resident of Battery Park and started babbling on how can these idiots feel its okay to shut down the school. I put her on hold and called Brenda. When I clicked over, she hung up.

I believed the caller to be ~~the~~ Grier by the sound of the voice.

As soon as I greeted the caller he asked me why am I not answering the phone. I said excuse me I'm not sure of what you are talking about. He said I have been calling from an anonymous and I'm not answering but now I answer when a number shows so I told him I had not received a call from a blocked #. He then said that he met a Freddy Belliard at a meeting the night before who told him he has been at the company and he asked me did I know the name

BP0A000227

and I said yes then he asked to speak with him and I told him he ~~was in a meeting and I got asked~~ him his name and he said Tim Bennett. I put him on hold for a moment then I told him that Kelly was in a meeting and I like a message for him to call him back he asked me was Robin still working and I said yes and he said why doesn't she answer her phone and I said I could not answer that question and then he hung up
